

Adams & Garth

STAFFING AND EXECUTIVE SEARCH

Central Virginia's Premier Staffing and Employment Agency

Since 1989, Adams & Garth has partnered with top employers throughout Virginia—providing temporary and full-time staffing, executive recruiting, training and HR consulting services. Our goal is to make hiring hassle-free.

At Adams & Garth, we take great pride in being a locally owned, non-franchise staffing agency in Central Virginia. We stay in touch with local employment needs by actively participating in dozens of local and regional business affiliations and economic development groups including:

- Local Chambers of Commerce
- Local and regional economic development organizations
- Local and regional human resource and employment organizations

- Adams & Garth has experience with and understands the needs of local government and local government agencies.

- We make all decisions at the local level—taking into account the best interests of the people, businesses and governments of Central Virginia.

Our Mission: Live, and do business according to the “Three R's”

- Respectful - We respect your time, and we believe the best way we can show you respect is by providing the right person, the first time. We will always strive to make the best match between employee and employer.

- Resourceful - Our team will always work to find creative solutions to your temporary and full-time staffing requirements—solutions that provide you with superior employees while controlling costs.

- Responsive - Even the best planning can't predict every staffing need. When last minute challenges hit, our staffing coordinators are committed to providing the fastest solutions.

Let Adams & Garth ensure you have access to the right people at the right times. Offices conveniently located in Charlottesville, Culpeper, Harrisonburg, Lynchburg, Staunton and Richmond. Plans are underway to open an office in Fredericksburg in 2010.
