

Virginia Housing Development Authority – VHDA is a self-supporting, not-for-profit organization created by the Commonwealth of Virginia in 1972, to help Virginians attain quality, affordable housing. Our mortgages are funded by bonds we issue, not by taxpayer dollars, and are available for homebuyers and developers of quality rental housing. We also teach free homeownership classes, and help people with disabilities and the elderly make their homes more livable.

VHDA works with lenders, developers, local governments, community service organizations and others to help put quality housing within the reach of every Virginian.
