

Senior Cook

The Merrimac Juvenile Detention Center is seeking a Senior Cook responsible for the shift operation of the kitchen and three line cooks in a secure juvenile detention facility. This position is responsible for preparing and serving meals for large groups, inventory control, and supply orders. Position requires thorough knowledge of materials and methods used in preparing foods on a large scale as well as comprehensive knowledge of the use and care of utensils and equipment, U.S.D.A. reports and practices, food values and nutrition, and health/ sanitation practices. This position works shifts, including weekends and holidays. Requires considerable experience in food service operation and some kitchen supervisory experience. Requires a background investigation to include criminal history, child protective services, sex offender registry records checks, and drug test. Starting Salary $31,027+ based on experience and full benefits. Obtain the application online at www.merrimac-center.net, print it once completed, and then fax resume with application to (757) 887-0340 or email to frontdesk@merrimac-center.net.