Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. expands relationship with NACo by becoming a Premier Corporate Partner

WASHINGTON — The National Association of Counties (NACo) today announced that Multi-Bank Securities, Inc. (MBS), a Southfield, Mich.-based company, has joined as a Premier Corporate Partner. MBS offers an innovative online platform, eConnectDirect®, which helps counties meet their financial investment objectives.

“We are proud to have MBS as our newest Premier Corporate Partner,” said Anthony Jamison, NACo Business Development Manager, County Solutions and Innovation. “Local governments are consistently pressured to do more with less, and we look forward to working with MBS to bring reliable and successful investment solutions to counties across America.”

MBS, a veteran-owned company, offers the resources required to tailor solutions for certain investment needs and funding objectives. Its proprietary online investment platform, eConnectDirect®, is designed to empower institutions – including local governments – to navigate the investment marketplace. eConnectDirect® gives county treasurers visibility to thousands of fixed-income offerings in a market with little transparency and arms investors with the necessary tools and confidence to compare, select and manage independently.

“We are so pleased to move forward as a Premier Corporate Partner and continue to support counties nationwide,” said John Coban, Senior Vice President for MBS. “We believe our NACo partnership will grow and that we’ll continue to help treasurers perform more efficiently and effectively.”

MBS currently works with almost a thousand local governments and approximately 150 counties use eConnectDirect®. More information can be found at www.mbssecurities.com or www.econnectdirect.com.
