POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Chief of Fire and Emergency Medical Services (EMS)

ORANGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, a progressive community located in Virginia's Piedmont, is seeking a Chief of Fire and Emergency Medical Services (EMS) to lead the work in development and implementation of policies designed to facilitate efficient and effective protection of life and property. The position requires a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university in Fire Science, Emergency Management, Public Administration, Business Administration, or related field. Education must be supplemented by extensive demonstrated upwardly mobile experience in Fire Protection, Emergency Management, or Emergency Medical Services; a minimum of five (5) years of responsible command experience in Firefighting and Emergency Medical Services; and field response and incident command experience. Other equivalent education and work experience may be considered in meeting the minimum education and experience requirements. The ideal candidate should possess knowledge of emergency services operations, firefighting and emergency medical services techniques, and applicable laws and regulations. A competitive candidate will demonstrate an ability to interact with a variety of partners, including elected and appointed officials, volunteer fire and rescue agencies, and the public, to interpret and communicate complex issues and varying interests. The position reports directly to the County Administrator.

Interested candidates should visit our website at orangecountyva.gov/Jobs.aspx or obtain an application package during regular business hours at the Orange County Administrator's Office, 112 W. Main Street, Orange, VA 22960; (540) 672-3313. This solicitation remains open until the position is filled; the first review of completed applications and accompanying résumés will begin on July 9, 2018. The salary for the position is negotiable based upon qualifications and experience with a hiring range of $73,043 to $94,956+. Excellent benefit package includes retirement, paid leave, group life insurance, medical insurance, and professional dues and conference expenses. Orange County is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
