invites applications for the position of:

Economic Development Executive Director

An Equal Opportunity Employer

POSITION #: 985001
DEPARTMENT: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
SALARY: Depends on Qualifications
OPENING DATE: 01/10/19

YOU could be the next Economic Development Executive Director for Prince William County, Virginia!

Located in the dynamic Washington D.C. region, Prince William County is the second largest locality in Virginia and one of the fastest growing localities in the country. This is an exciting opportunity to lead a talented team, capitalize on major investments within the region, identify new opportunities, and advance Prince William County's position as a national leader in Economic Development.

The County benefits from a strategic location, highly educated workforce, world-class community facilities, and a strong and diverse business community representing major national and global companies in many industry sectors. We are also home to George Mason University's Science and Technology Campus, two Northern Virginia Community College campuses, and Marine Corps Base Quantico. Situated along the Potomac River, Prince William County is located 20 miles from Washington D.C. and we offer a broad array of transportation choices including Interstate 95, Interstate 66, commuter and freight rail service, and commuter bus service. We are served by two major international airports (Dulles International and Reagan National) and the largest executive regional airport in Virginia (Manassas Regional Airport).

Prince William County is a business-friendly community with significant industrial, office, retail, and mixed-use development and redevelopment opportunities. We are looking for an Executive Director that can build on our successes, bring forward new opportunities, demonstrate a culture of innovation, and enhance the quality of life.
