

Police Officer – Town of Christiansburg

The Police Officer is to protect life and property, to deter criminal activity, and to enforce all Town statutes, ordinances, and the laws and regulations of the state. Incumbents in this class may be assigned to perform special assignments, such as field training officer, drug investigations, school resource, internet crimes investigations, K-9 unit, crime prevention or other special assignment. High School diploma or GED; valid VA driver's license, Basic Law Enforcement Certification; or any equivalent combination of education, training & experience required. Closes 6.9.19, 12pm. For more information visit <http://www.christiansburg.org/987/Employment-Opportunities>. E.O.E./E-Verify.