INTRODUCTION:

Do you seek a challenging opportunity where your commitment, enthusiasm and passion will have a positive impact on countless employees?

Would you enjoy working for an organization that is committed to positive change and is currently involved in large County-wide initiatives which will positively impact and align the entire organization and provide critical resources to our current workforce and workforce of the future?

If yes, Prince William County's Department of Human Resources (HR) is recruiting for a full-time Training Manager. We invite you to apply.

HR leads the Government in attracting, retaining and engaging the most superior workforce to support the strategic goals of the Board of County Supervisors and ensure Prince William represents a community of choice.

As HR's Training Manager, you will assume a lead role in assessing, planning and maximizing employee' talents, skills and creativity to support the County's leadership philosophy, culture, vision and values. Every day you will work with a small training team, collaborate with a high-energy HR staff and partner with County departments and staff. Your training efforts will be focused on over 1200 supervisors and middle managers, the individuals most responsible for fostering positive employee engagement, retention, morale, productivity, customer satisfaction and overall success.

Join our team and become part of something very special in public service. We will offer you the opportunity to apply your creativity, expertise and ingenuity and partner with a talented and welcoming workforce.

We eagerly await the "right person "who embodies the "right fit" to join our special HR team.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT: Criminal History Check
