

Application Division Administrator

The City of Roanoke's Department of Technology is seeking a highly qualified applicant Application Division Administrator who will work closely with directors, departmental managers, and other staff to address technology issues and gather requirements for future technology planning. Provides research, long range planning, budgeting and implements major new application technology initiatives; project management including project planning, budgeting, staffing, business analysis, and managing relationships and work efforts among the various functional business units both internally and externally. Bachelor's degree from four-year college or university supplemented by extensive professional experience in information systems; five to ten years related experience and/or training in project management of major technology applications, technical staff development, team building and staff supervision; or equivalent combination of education and experience.

Salary Range: $80,000-$95,000 Annually. EEO/AA/M/F/Disability Employer. To apply, visit www.roanokeva.gov/jobs. Deadline to apply: June 15, 2021, 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time.