

Computer Analyst/Technician - The County of Greene is seeking a full-time computer analyst technician to perform technical work related to the County's Data Base System and hardware. Responsibilities include: hardware and software support and maintenance; training system users; supporting county email system; maintaining network infrastructure including firewall, switches, and internet connections; and preparing, processing and printing various forms and special reports. Minimum requirements include knowledge of Microsoft Office software, website design, high school diploma, and 1-3 years of computer experience. IBM AS400 experience is a plus. Starting Salary $51,257. Submit cover letter/resume and completed County application to County Administrator, P.O. Box 358, Stanardsville, VA 22973. This position is open until filled. Applications will be considered as they are received. Visit www.greencountyva.gov for an application. Greene County is an EEO, AA, M/F/H/V employer.