

County of Nottoway, VA.
Planning and Economic Development Director

Nottoway County, Virginia (population 14,896) home to Fort Pickett and the U.S. State Department's new Foreign Affairs Training Center is seeking applications for the position of Planning and Economic Development Director.

Job Summary: This department head position is responsible for directing and administering the planning and economic development activities of the county including land use planning, zoning, plan review, subdivision, code enforcement, and economic development functions.

Required Minimum Qualifications: A Bachelor's Degree in Public Administration, Business Management, Urban and Regional Planning, or closely related field. Three (3) years of progressively responsible professional level experience with planning and economic development programs required. Any combination of education and experience which in the sole discretion of the County would demonstrate the Employee's ability to meet the required knowledge, skills, and abilities for the position may also be considered. Must possess or be able to obtain a valid Virginia driver's license.

Starting Salary range is $64,680 - $104,030, DOQ, with an excellent benefit package. Full position description can be found at www.nottoway.org.

Application deadline is Monday, August 30, 2021 by 4:30 p.m. send cover letter, resume, and application to lmorgan@nottoway.org

Nottoway County, Virginia is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer