

Strategic Communications Officer

Williamsburg-James City County Public Schools' strategic communications officer provides leadership in the areas of communications and community engagement by planning, implementing, and directing an effective and innovative communication and public relations strategy in alignment with the division's strategic plan. This position is responsible for developing and maintaining programs to foster family and community engagement while overseeing the dissemination of information to both internal and external audiences. Acts as the spokesperson for the Division as well as an executive advisor to the superintendent in matters of communication, public relations, and engagement. LEARN MORE HERE