

CIVIL ENGINEER

The County of Augusta is accepting applications for a Civil Engineer in the Department of Community Development.

A partial listing of the duties and responsibilities of the position are as follows: Serve as the Virginia Stormwater Management Program Administrator; enforce County Ordinances; act as project manager on County stormwater maintenance projects; review proposed construction plans for compliance with County Ordinances, State laws and regulations; maintain records and files and prepare reports.

This position requires a Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering or related field, EIT designation and a PE license are preferred.

The County offers an excellent fringe benefits package including retirement, group life and health insurance, and PTO leave program. Hiring range is $56,972 - $62,669 depending upon qualifications.

Applications can be completed and submitted online from our website at www.co.augusta.va.us . County application with resume can be emailed to hr@co.augusta.va.us. Position open until filled. Equal Opportunity Employer.