DESCRIPTION:

Do you want to utilize your organizational and administrative skills to plan, organize, coordinate, implement, and supervise all varieties and aspects of the City's athletic programs and sports activities? If so, consider applying for the Parks and Recreation Department's Athletic Program Coordinator position!

The Athletic Program Coordinator is a full-time position with benefits and a preferred hiring range of $19.76 - $22.72 per hour (equivalent to $41,100 - $47,257 annually); however, an exact salary will be dependent upon the selected candidate's qualifications/experience and in compliance with City policy. Applicants who do not meet the qualifications for the Coordinator level may be considered for another level within the department at an annual rate commensurate with applicant qualifications.

As the Athletic Program Coordinator, you'll:

- Manage, plan, and oversee implementation of the seasonal and day-to-day operations of the City's athletic program, which also includes the supervision of Recreation Specialists, part-time, seasonal, and volunteer staff members;
- Evaluate leisure needs of citizens and develop and implement athletic programs to meet needs;
- Research, review and revise class fees/charges and establish new fees/charges, as necessary;
- Plan, promote, and organize summer recreational camps;
- Maintain appropriate program registration records, tally program attendance for reports, and perform post-program evaluations;
- Make recommendations on athletic program improvements and delivery of athletic services;
- Maintain inventory of athletic equipment;
- Ensure the proper set-up of various sport-specific athletic fields, gymnasiums, and other athletic facilities;
- Coordinate the use of outside facilities for games and practices;
- Assist with the scheduling of assigned facilities and facility users;
- Work with Harrisonburg City Schools, Youth Associations, and outside user groups to schedule athletic programming;
- Assist with the management of contract staff;
- Assist with payment processing and monitoring of program participants;

- Maintain and update administrative policies and procedures;
- Assist with the Athletic Division budget preparation and management;
- Assist with the preparation of social media content, flyers, and website content;
- Perform other public relations work relating to City athletic programs;
- Assess personnel and equipment needs;
- Assist with the hiring, training, scheduling, and supervision of part-time staff for both day and evening programs.

A list of the ideal candidate's knowledge, skills, and abilities for this position is available in the Athletic Program Coordinator class specification.

Minimum Requirements:

- Undergraduate degree with coursework in parks and recreation, sports management, physical education, leisure services, or related field and minimal experience in the supervision of recreation programs and staff. An equivalent combination of education and experience may be used to meet this requirement.
- Valid driver's license.
- Availability and willingness to work a varied schedule, including days, nights, weekends, and holidays.
