

Earl W. Anderson, AICP

Earl W. Anderson, AICP is a Senior Planner with York County, Virginia's Department of Planning and Development Services, since 2004. He assists the public and elected/appointed officials with long-range decision-making through the preparation of reports, presentations, and/or public participation methods. He has worked as a Utility Planner in Richmond, Virginia and as the City Planner, Senior Planner, and Planner in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Earl is currently the Past-President of the Virginia Chapter of the American Planning Association and has served on this Board in various other positions since 2004. Mr. Anderson received a Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State University in Community and Regional Planning in 1999.