

Carroll County Parks & Recreation

Recreation Director Position

Carroll County is hiring a Recreation Director who will manage and administer the County's recreation planning, operations and programming. We are looking for someone who is passionate about providing top-notch recreational opportunities and facilities to the citizens of Carroll County and who has the ability to lead the department in a positive forward direction.

About the Department

The County's recreation program is carried out at multiple locations with the main campus and department offices being located on an 80-acre property at 129 Ballpark Drive, Hillsville. Two baseball fields, a disc golf course, a walking trail, picnic shelters, playground (currently under reconstruction) and newly installed splash pad are all located at this location. In Woodlawn, VA, the County leases the gym at the Woodlawn School Apartment Complex to provide an indoor walking program, basketball, wellness classes and more. The department also works with the local school system to utilize school facilities for the Recreation Department's sports programming throughout the year.

The Director's Position

Overseeing the County's recreation program, facilities and employees is the Recreation Director, a key role in the department's structure. The director provides vision, oversight and direction, working through the department's employees and with the County Administrator, other County departments and the Carroll County Recreation Commission to continuously improve the department, its programs and services. The successful director will have a forward-thinking approach for enhancing and growing the department's facilities and programs. Ideally the successful candidate will have considerable experience with leading a growing recreation program.
