

Biography – 2023

Earl W. Anderson, AICP

Chief of Development Services
York County, Virginia
Past President of APA Virginia

Earl W. Anderson, AICP is the Chief of Development Services, responsible for managing and providing direction to the staff of the Development Services Division, which includes the site and subdivision plan review function and zoning and code enforcement. He directs the activities of professional, technical, and administrative staff engaged in plan review to ensure compliance with applicable County Codes and design criteria in an expeditious manner. He provides technical advice to the Director, Deputy Director, County Administrator, Deputy County Administrator, Assistant County Administrator, and the Board of Supervisors. He prepares the division's budget, monitors expenditures, and directs the compilation of weekly, monthly, and special reports.

He has worked as a Planner and Senior Planner in York County, a Utility Planner in Richmond, Virginia, and as the City Planner, Senior Planner, and Planner in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Earl is currently the Past President of the Virginia Chapter of the American Planning Association and has served on this Board in various other positions since 2004. Mr. Anderson received a Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State University in Community and Regional Planning in 1999.