

Recreation Specialist

Amherst County Recreation, Tourism and Cultural Development Department seeks a detail oriented, energetic and creative people person to serve as a full-time Recreation Specialist. The position performs advanced technical work developing, planning, administering and supervising a variety of recreation programs which includes youth and adult athletics and services. The work schedule can vary based on events, practices, games, etc.

A bachelor's degree in recreation administration or a related field with several years of experience operating recreational programs or an equivalent combination of education and experience is required. Experience supervising paid staff and/or volunteers is required. Experience providing recreation activities for persons of varying ages and interest levels is preferred. The starting salary range is $55,485 to $58,953.

Applicants must apply by submitting a resume through the Amherst County Human Resources Employment Opportunities link below and clicking on Recreation Specialist:

<https://www.countyofamherst.com/category/?categoryid=6>

Questions about the position may be answered by contacting Randal Nixon at 434-946-9371. This position is open until filled. EEO