Governor Spanberger Addresses General Assembly

Governor Abigail Spanberger, who took the oath of office and was inaugurated as Virginia's 75th Governor on Saturday, addressed a joint session of the General Assembly on Monday afternoon, setting out her legislative priorities and encouraging work to find common ground. Governor Spanberger highlighted several Executive Orders she signed on Saturday that are intended to reduce costs and streamline housing production, and discussed several legislative proposals designed to address cost-of-living concerns in the areas of health care, energy, and housing, including:

- Placing guardrails on certain practices by pharmacy benefit managers
- Providing targeted health care premium assistance
- Strengthening health care workforce incentive programs
- Expanding energy storage
- Enhancing programs that assist low-income Virginians with energy efficiency improvements
- Rejoining the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative
- Bolstering certain protections for tenants
- Allowing local governments to adopt affordable housing programs (as the Governor explained, "Our proposal will empower local governments to adopt affordable housing programs that fit their needs – because the people closest to the problem are often best positioned to solve it."), and
- Creating a revolving loan fund to support mixed-income housing developments

The Governor complimented Governor Glenn Youngkin's economic development efforts, notably his investments in site development, and indicated her plans to build on these successes through initiatives such as the creation of the state's Economic Resiliency Task Force to coordinate a statewide response to federal actions; her directive to her Cabinet members to support farmers in expanding their markets; and her support for workforce development efforts. She reiterated her opposition to repeal of Virginia's "Right to Work" statutes, but emphasized her desire to be the best state for working families as well as the best state for business through initiatives such as a statewide paid family and medical leave program, increased access to child care, and a $15 per hour minimum wage.

ACTION ITEM: VACo Opposes Sovereign Immunity Bill

SB 228 \(Surovell\) proposes changes to Code, including limiting the sovereign immunity of local governments. The bill states that when a locality provides liability insurance or self-insurance under this section, that provision is "deemed a waiver of sovereign immunity." This means the locality may be liable for damages up to the total of the self-insurance or insurance coverage it has in place, including any pooled or excess coverage.

VACo Members – Contact your Senator on the Courts of Justice Committee to Oppose SB 228.

According to local government risk insurers, this will have significant fiscal impacts to local government liabilities, potentially raising existing liability costs by more than 2.5 times, resulting in several hundred million dollars in additional costs to local governments.

Local governments routinely perform inherently risky but socially necessary functions, such law enforcement and corrections, fire-EMS and emergency response, child welfare and social services, land-use decisions and zoning, and public works, and transportation. Without sovereign immunity, localities face open-ended liability for lawsuits, including high-dollar verdicts.

VACo opposes any substantive change in local governments' present defense of qualified immunity and sovereign immunity. SB 228 has been referred to the Senate Courts of Justice Committee, which could hear the bill as early as Wednesday, January 21. VACo urges member localities to consult with their risk insurance providers to determine individual fiscal impacts of the legislation.

ACTION ITEM: VACo Opposes Bills to Allow “By-Right” Development of Faith-Based Owned Property

SB 367 \(Carroll Foy\), SB 388 \(McPike\) and HB 1279 \(Cole\) override local decision-making authority by allowing development of housing on land owned by property tax-exempt religious organizations or certain property tax-exempt nonprofit organizations and provides that zoning ordinances shall allow the by-right development of up to 20 units per acre on property owned by such organizations. The bill mandates that the review of such developments be completed pursuant to general law and states that localities shall not require a special exception, special use permit, conditional use permit, rezoning, or any discretionary review or approval process.

Contact your Delegates and Senators to Oppose SB 367, SB 388, and HB 1279.

KEY POINTS

- VACo supports maintaining local authority to make land use decisions on the location and density of residential development.
- By-right development of residential growth on any property, regardless of its location and access to adequate public facilities such as water, sewer, and roads, is inconsistent with the goals and objectives of sound land use policy and practice.

SB 367 and SB 388 will be heard in the Senate Local Government on Monday, January 26. HB 1279 has not been assigned to a committee.
