

CITY OF HARRISONBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT CAPTAIN

The Harrisonburg Police Department is accepting applications for three Police Captain openings. We are seeking forward-thinking, strategic leaders who will work collaboratively with department personnel and City leadership to strengthen operations, support our workforce, and advance responsive, community-centered policing. The ideal candidate brings an unwavering commitment to community safety and security, demonstrated through selfless acts of service, sound judgment, and the ability to lead with integrity, accountability, and professionalism in a changing public safety environment.

HARRISONBURG, VIRGINIA

The City of Harrisonburg is an independent city located in the central Shenandoah Valley region of Virginia. The city falls within Rockingham County and encompasses 17.4 square miles, serving a population of approximately 56,879.

Harrisonburg is located along Interstate 81 and is only two hours away from both Richmond and Washington, D.C. Harrisonburg City Council and staff are currently operating under the City's 2045 Vision Plan, which calls for a focus on creating A City For All and prioritizing the areas of A Harmonious Community, Economic Development & Financial Empowerment, A Thriving Educational Epicenter, Available Housing for All, Community Resiliency & the Natural Environment, High Quality City Services, and Fiscal Sustainability & Planning.

Within the Harrisonburg City Public Schools system is a Pre-K Early Learning Center, six elementary schools, two middle schools, and two high schools. Harrisonburg is also home to two university campuses – James Madison University and Eastern Mennonite University. James Madison is a public research university with an enrollment of more than 22,000 students, and Eastern Mennonite University (EMU) is a private, Mennonite-affiliated liberal arts university with an enrollment of approximately 1,500 students.

An agricultural hub, Harrisonburg has now evolved into a lively and distinct destination with a vibrant arts and entertainment scene. The city is home to a plethora of parks and trails and hosts community events throughout the year. Downtown Harrisonburg was designated as Virginia's first recognized Arts and Cultural District in 2001 and the first recognized Culinary District in 2014. Downtown boasts a variety of locally owned restaurants, coffee shops, bars, craft breweries, and boutiques. The area is home to an expansive network of galleries, music venues, theaters, and museums, making it an exciting place for anyone to enjoy.

THE HARRISONBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Harrisonburg Police Department is comprised of 116 full-time sworn officers, 3 part-time sworn officers, and 31 professional staff. The department is broken up into three bureaus: the Special Operations Bureau, the Support Services Bureau, and the Patrol Operations Bureau.

SPECIAL OPERATIONS BUREAU

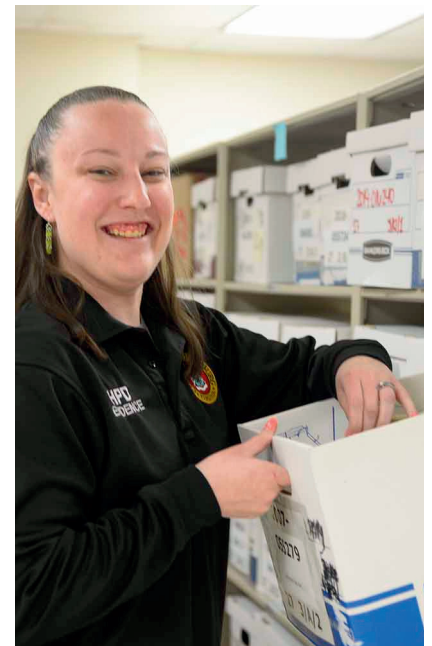

The Special Operations Bureau is comprised of the Special Operations Division and the Criminal Investigation Division. Within these divisions are the Community Resource Unit, Traffic Unit, Animal Control Unit, Police K9 Unit, Major Crimes Unit, both the full-time digital forensics lab and the full-time forensic evidence lab, and more.

PATROL OPERATIONS BUREAU

The Patrol Operations Bureau houses both the Behavioral Health Unit and the Crime Analysis Unit, made up of professional staff. The Patrol Division encompasses all four patrol squads, two day shift and two night shift, each assigned two Sergeants and one Lieutenant. Patrol is also assisted by our Selective Enforcement Team and two Business Resource Officers, one downtown and one at the mall.

SUPPORT SERVICES BUREAU

The Support Services Bureau includes the Professional Standards Unit, Records Unit, Evidence Unit, Personnel Development Unit, and more. Most of the department's professional staff fall under support services and serve in roles like Accreditation Manager, Outreach and Communication Specialist, Systems Analyst, Records Specialist, and more.
